Emmanuel LULIN

Senior Vice-President & Chief Ethics Officer,
L'ORÉAL

Emmanuel joined L'ORÉAL in 1999 as Group General Counsel for Human Resources. In 2007, under the leadership of Mr. AGON, he created the Office of the Group Chief Ethics Officer. Before joining L'ORÉAL, Emmanuel was admitted to the Paris Bar in 1988 and practiced as a corporate and tax attorney at Debevoise & Plimpton in Paris and New York. He holds a Master of Laws from U. of Chicago Law School and law degrees from Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne) and Paris II (Assas). In 1988, he was the Lavoisier laureate of the French Ministry for Foreign Affairs. From 2007 to 2012, he was on the Board of the Ethics & Compliance Officer Association in the United States and is on the Board of the Cercle Ethique des Affaires in France since 2011. He is a Fellow of the Ethics Resource Center (Washington), a member of the Global Council on Business Conduct (New York), of the Ethics Committee of AFD - the French Agency for Development (Paris) and of the Ethics Committee of IFA - the French Institute of Directors (Paris). Emmanuel represents L'ORÉAL in a number of international organizations including U.N. Global Compact, UN Women, Institute of Business Ethics (London), ICC Commission on Corruption. In 2011 and 2013, he was recognized by the Ethisphere Institute as a "Top Ethics & Compliance Officer".
